UNIPGC AFRICA

UNIPGCAFRICA is an organization devoted to the promotion of Sustainable Peace, Good Governance Advocacy and Poverty Eradication with Africa as our main focus.

Our principal means of achieving our goals are through enlightenments, seminars, conferences, interventions, conflict resolutions, mediations, publications, lectures and deployment of peace emissaries as the need arises. We are an integral part of International Peace and Governance Council (IPGC), Atlanta, USA and also the Chartered Institute of Peace and Governance Inc. (CIPG) Texas, USA which apart from other values also serve as veritable sources of training diplomats, good governance and peace ambassadors worldwide:

UNIPGC-AFRICA WEBSITE. www.unipgcafrica.org

Our educational program seeks to develop capacities of global leaders with focus on promoting the principles that fosters Good Governance and peaceful co-existence of societies. We aim to collaborate with various world Governments , UN Agencies and other Diplomatic Missions to support the mandates of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

We are working closely with United Nations Associations who exists in various countries to lubricate and oil the wheels of relationships between the United Nations and the people of member states and also create public awareness on the various activities of UN.

By working with UNA across Africa, our core objectives extend further to:

- Promotion of Sustainable Peace and Good Governance Advocacy.
- Strengthening Democratic Processes
- Election Monitoring
- Alleviation and Eradication of Poverty
- Implementation of Sustainable Development Goals.
- Encouraging Security and Disarmaments
- Promotion of Human Rights & Human Dignity
- Assisting in the provision of Humanitarian needs.
- Training and Orientation of Community Peace Ambassadors.

Our Mission is officially registered across the African continent with HQRTS recently moved from Rwanda to Nigeria. We are currently operating in the following countries: Cameroon, Ghana, Sierra Leone Ivory coast Zambia and South Africa

UNIPGC-AFRICA function in these countries through Country Directors, Country Chiefs, Special Envoys, Advisory Boards and Committees who discharge their responsibilities as charted by the Supreme Council after taking into consideration the pressing challenges that needs attention in our list of goals and objectives.

UNIPGC is governed by the Supreme Order of International Peace and Governance Council (IPGC) consisting of High ranking personalities and professionals who are experts in various fields informing the general public of the activities, importance and values of the United Nations.

Our highest decision-making body is the Supreme Council headed by the Global President His Excellency Ambassador (Dr) Jonathan Ojadah Other prominent diplomats, university dons, seasoned technocrats, senior public servants, senior security officials, and recognizable individuals who have made their marks join him at the table of the Supreme Council to coordinate and direct the affairs of the organization.

We have successfully carried out various activities highlighted above in several countries which can be seen below in pictures. We are also poised to commence training and upgrading of peace diplomats and ambassadors and continuous training through the following institutions:

- Chartered Institute of Peace & Governance USA.
- UNIPGC AFRICA Diplomatic School of Professional Studies.

In his acceptance speech, Dr Aryee said he looked forward to challenging himself by collaborating with various countries represented on the UNIPGC, as well as international and local bodies, to provide competitive research and new innovations to benefit the sub-region and Africa.

As the first Country Director, my duties are to work hard in bringing together a wide range of civil society organisation from the international to the local level, consolidate and strengthen the efforts of organisations and individuals around the world," he added.

Dr Aryee also pledged to ensure the promotion of human rights, good governance and democratic development, while supporting free and fair elections, institutional capacity building and the fight against corruption, both within the country and across the globe.

He further vowed to explore opportunities and coordinate with funding institutions and development agencies through the UNIPGC to support the country's effort in specific areas of development concerns.

INAUGURATION FOR PROF. MOKUBE MATHIAS ITOE

AS COUNTRY DIRECTOR OF THE UNITED
INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND GOVERNANCE
COUNCIL (UNIPGC), CAMEROON

The ceremony was flagged with the arrival and introduction of guests, arrival of members of government (or representative) and members of the Diplomatic Corps.

Thereafter was an opening prayer followed by singing the National Anthem. Ambassador Tony Adumah, Chairman BOT of IPC Nigeria delivered the opening speech, followed by an interlude (African Praise) which was proceeded by two paper presentations, the first speech delivered on the Role of Peace in Sustainable Developments in Africa. In the presentation, the contribution of peace in sustainable development was stated. She sited the negative peace which is said to be the absence of violence, absence of war and positive peace which is the peace that contribute to sustainable development. She also explained how positive peace ensure sustainable development and listed the eight pillars of positive peace namely ;

- 1). Well-functioning government
- 2). Sound business environment
- 3). Equitable distribution of resources
- 4). Acceptance of the rights of others
- 5). Good relations with neighbors
- 6). Free flow of information
- 7). High levels of human capital
- 8). Low levels of corruption

In conclusion, she mentioned that there can be no peace without sustainable development and no sustainable development without peace. A peaceful society is the basis of a vibrant, happy and prosperous nation, she said.

The second presentation was on Sustainable development and digitalization. The presenter mentioned that the world is gradually evolving into a digital world, and technology has become part of our everyday life and also has a great role to play in achieving sustainable development goals.

In conclusion, "Sustainable development is the key to ensuring a safer society in the present and future generation, and this can only be achieved through the use of digital technology and a participatory approach to tackle economic, social and environmental issues.

After these presentations, there was an interlude (international psalmists) followed by the Profile citation of Professor MOKUBE Mathias ITOE by Ambassador Tony Adumah. followed by the commissioning of Prof Mokube by His Excellency, Ambassador Dr. Jonathan Ojadah, the Vice President of the International Peace and Governance Council (IPGC) USA who performed the commission with the oaths of allegiance, and the handing of administrative documents. HER EXCELLENCY, CHIEF DR. JEWEL HOWARD-TAYLOR

VICE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF LIBERIA

Distinguished Ladies and Gentlemen, I have the honor to introduce to you, our Guest Speaker for today who is the Honorable Vice President, Her Excellency Chief Dr. Jewel Howard-Taylor.

Vice President Chief Dr. Taylor has served in many private and public capacities; key amongst which are the following:

- President, Agricultural Cooperative Bank-
- Deputy Governor, National Bank of Liberia; now Central Bank of Liberia
- First Lady of the republic of Liberia
- Senior Senator of Bong County, twice
- Currently the First female Vice President of Liberia.

Vice President Chief Dr. Taylor is a well learned individual with the following degrees:

- Bachelor of Science in Economics,
- Post Graduate Diploma in Professional Banking(Honors graduate)
- MBA in Finance(Honors graduate)
- LLB in Law(Honors graduate)
- Graduate Diploma in International Relations (Honors graduate)
- Master Class Certificate, in Business Management & Leadership

And as a result of her impactful work both at home and abroad, has received the following Honorary Degrees:

- Honorary Degree in Leadership and governance
- Honorary Degree in Gender Development
- Honorary Degree in International Relations

Vice President Chief Dr. Taylor is a daughter of Bong County, born to the Royal Household of Kerkula Giddings of Sanoyea District; who during his tenure wrote the script to the Kpelle language. The Vice President was raised as a child on the Phebe Hospital Compound under the watchful care of her loving parents, Mr. Moses Y. Howard and Mrs. Nora Giddings-Howard., both of whom were enviable professional Health Workers who died in service to the people of Bong County and are buried at the Phebe Compound.

Vice President Chief Dr. Taylor is a visible and very involved stateswoman; with a vision for affordable but quality education; a transparent justice system; an improved and accessible health system; women's economic and political participation; and an accountable public service system amongst others.

She is one of Liberia's foremost advocates for increased and improved opportunities for women of Liberia; thus becoming a critical voice on cross-cutting issues at many frontlines in the battle to reposition Liberia for vibrancy, productivity and democratic good governance.

On account of her national disposition whilst she served as Senior Senator for Bong County, she was fondly called the Senator without boundaries. Whilst she represented Bong County in particular, her voice and views were national in scope. As a result of her passion and commitment for a better and more equitable Nation for all Liberians, she was often referred to as the "People's Senator" and in confirmation of this title, Newsweek Magazine voted her the 2nd Most Powerful Female Politician in Liberia in 2011.

Her Excellency Chief Dr. Taylor currently serves in many capacities; is a member of many organizations and supports many philanthropic organizations; key amongst which are the following:

- Chair, Board of Trustees, Restoration Baptist Church, Oldest Congo Town.
- Deaconess, Restoration Baptist Church, Oldest Congo Town.
- Member, Bong County Bar Association
- Member, Bong County Women Association
- Member, Liberian National Red Cross
- Member, Liberian Rural Women Association
- Member, YWCA
- Member, Liberia Girls Guide Association
- Chair of the Board, African Women's Leadership Organization
- Member, International Women's Political Leadership Network
- Patron for Africa, Girl to Leader Initiative
- Founder and Chief Patron, The Jewel Star Fish Foundation
- Member of African Women Leaders Network, an AU initiative.

As a result of her National impact, Vice President Chief Dr. Taylor has been a recipient of many accolades, Laurels and Awards from Local, National and International Organizations, ranging from humanitarian awards to outstanding Leadership awards. Key amongst many of them are:

NATIONAL AWARDS:

- Women Activist Award, (2016) for her role in gender advocacy and empowerment.
- The Nation's highest honor as Knight Great Dame, Order of the Most Venerable Order of the Pioneers in 2005; granted to her by Former President Charles G. Taylor for her service to the Nation as the 21st First Lady of Liberia;

- The First Female to be given the Distinguished Traditional Title of Venerable Chief in the National Traditional Council of Liberia in 2011. A Chieftaincy title conferred on her by Traditional Chiefs and Elders of Bong County for her role in sponsoring the a bill which created the National Traditional Council of Liberia; and in full recognition of her exemplary Services to the traditional people.
- The Ellen Johnson-Sirleaf Presidential Recognition Award for Humanitarian Services and contribution to Youth Development in Liberia from the (AAW Peace) African & American Women in 2011;
- The National Excellence Award for Exceptional National Service in 2011;

African Female Leader of the Year 2012 from the African Leadership Awards, in Dubai;

- 2019—listed as one of the 100 Most Influential African Women—ADVANCED MEDIA;
- 2019— Most Influential African Woman Award—African Woman Barometer;

Vice President Chief Dr. Taylor is a grass rooter and a strong pillar of the Christian Community; a believer in women's empowerment, multiparty democracy, freedom of speech, Human Rights and the Rule of Law. As a result of her more than 20 plus years of experience in both the private and public sectors; she, unlike most politicians of today, has the privilege to be able to cut across political, social and ethnic lines, and has friends and collaborators in all political establishments in Liberia. Vice President Chief Dr. Taylor remains a strong voice for change and progress in our Nation and beyond, and an icon for Liberian and African Women.

Her commitment to women empowerment goes beyond the ordinary; through her establishment more than 20 years ago of the Jewel Star Fish Foundation, which continues to provide education, empowerment, mentorship and leadership to girls in Liberia, Malawi, Ghana and soon Sierra Leone and Guinea.

Vice President Chief Dr. Jewel Howard-Taylor, is a Nationalist, a Former First Lady of the Republic of Liberia, an Eminent Citizen, a Devoted Christian, the Standard Bearer of the National Patriotic Party, the first Female Vice President of the Republic of Liberia and first Female President of the Liberian Senate, a Distinguished and Dedicated Public Servant, a Patriotic Citizen and a Positive Role Model.

Distinguished Ladies and Gentlemen, may I ask that you kindly rise with me, as we welcome to the podium; the Jewel of Liberia and Africa; the Honorable Vice President of the Republic of Liberia; Her Excellency Chief Dr. Jewel Howard Taylor.
